Reference Section (The words "discrimination" and "sovereignty" are defined. Examples of political discrimination are: Refusal of USA to permit entry to Soviet cultural figures, delay and search of Soviet ships in American ports, curtailment of trade by USA with USSR and countries friendly to latter. Racial discrimination is the limitation of the human rights of national minorities in capitalist countries, and its most bestial form is the oppression of negroes in the USA. "Sovereignty" is the independence of a state in domestic and foreign affairs.)
